5th ANNUAL DIVA CENTRAL – RCC'S PROM DRESS GIVEAWAY

RESTON, VA — The Reston Community Center is proud to announce that it has received over 300 prom dresses for its 5th Annual Diva Central event. Reston Community Center will be giving away these dresses and various accessories to local high school girls during this year's Diva Central event scheduled on Saturday, April 12 & Sunday, April 13 from 12 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Reston Community Center Lake Anne. Limit one dress per person. Admission to this event is free.

Diva Central is RCC's annual prom dress giveaway to promote confidence and self-esteem by providing free dresses and accessories to local high school junior and senior girls who cannot otherwise afford them. During this two-day event, high school teenagers will be able to browse and select from more than 300 prom dresses in all different colors, sizes, and styles for prom night. In addition, participants will be entered in raffle drawings for a chance to win prizes donated by our local business sponsors.

"We would like to see every girl have the opportunity to attend their prom night in style and have fun regardless of their financial or family circumstances," Kish Jordan, Teen Program Director said. "The only requirement is that they are a high school junior or senior, actively enrolled in school and eligible to attend their prom."

"RCC is committed to helping local young women realize positive life experiences and Diva Central is the perfect opportunity for us to surround them with positive role models and encourage future success," Eileen Boone, RCC's General Programs Director said.

This year's Diva Central is cosponsored by: Clyde's, Macaroni Grill of Reston, Blooms, Mary Kay Cosmetics, Angelina's of Herndon, AAA Recycling & Trash Removal Services, Northrop Grumman of Reston, BAE Systems, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. - Fairfax County Alumnae Chapter and the Professional Convention Management Association (PCMA) - Capital Chapter.
